Joe's Car Rentals: Guide to Adding a New Customer
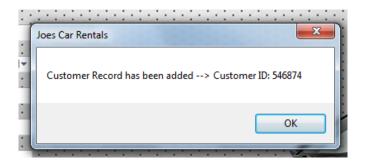

Once you have successfully, entered the system using the correct credentials you will be shown the form where the details of a new customer should be added.

From the screenshot above you see an enlarged view of the fields where the data has been entered. After entering the data, it will be checked and any errors will shows. Press the Add button shown to add the record to the data.

546874	John	Smith	10/11/1994	07935214514	54 Millions Wa	Lakeside	L56 6HN	john_smith@s	546874

Above the confirmation message can be seen where the user is told that there record has been added successfully and they are also given their customer ID. Below this, the record can be seen which is added to the database.